Additional Information:

Section 195 NYS Labor Law: Employers must give the information on this notice in writing to all employees at the time of hiring.

Employers must notify employees in writing of any changes to the information in this notice at least seven calendar days prior to the time of such changes, unless such changes are reflected on the employee's wage statement. However, even if the change will be reflected on the employee's wage statement, employers may not lower an employee's rate(s) of pay without notifying the employee before the work is performed.

Employers must notify their employees in writing or by publicly posting their policy on sick leave, vacation, personal leave, holidays and hours. Employers must preserve their payroll records for 6 years.

NYS Minimum Wage Order for Farm Workers: Employers must post, in a conspicuous place on the farm:

- a copy of any generally applicable work agreement and
- a posting issued by the NYS Department of Labor summarizing the Farm Minimum Wage provisions.

It is unlawful for an employee to be paid less than an employee of the opposite sex or because the employee is in a protected class.

Employers may not prohibit employees from discussing their wages with co-workers.

Employers may not enquire about an employee's salary history.
